Foreword

As members of the Senior Class of Luray High School, we have worked for the common good of our school. Sincere effort has made possible what little we have achieved. We hope that through the years the pages of "The Highland" will recall the happy days spent at our Alma Mater.

MR. C. B. PHILLIPS

MISS ANNIE PIERCE

MISS LENA MARTHA BOHANNON

Dedication

In recognition of their intelligent guidance, sympathetic understanding, and untiring service, we, the Senior Class of '49, dedicate with sincere esteem "The Highland" to our Principal, Mr. C. B. Phillips, and our Senior Sponsors, Miss Lena Martha Bohannon and Miss Annie Pierce.

Last Will and Testament

We, the Senior Class of 1949, being of sound mind and body (we hope), do make this, our "Last Will and Testament."

To the Faculty, we leave visions of our smiling faces, our good deeds, and our loving ways.

To the Junior Class, we leave our dear teachers, Miss Bohannon and Miss Annie, as well as our beloved homerooms where we have spent some of the happiest hours of our lives.

The Senior Class wills its ability to become Intra-Mural Basketball Champions to the Sophomores.

The Senior Class Girls leave their mirror to Pearl Good, Ruth Estep, and Jane Montgomery so others may have a chance at the mirror in the restroom.

The Senior Boys and Girls leave the vacant spots at Bone Yard Hill, Yager's Woods, and the Gravel Pit to the Freshmen. We hope by the time they're Seniors we won't need them.

All the couples of '49 leave the privacy of the typing room to all the other couples who can get by with using it as we did.

The Shorthand Class of '49 leaves to the next Shorthand pupils the ability to get Miss Poe off the subject when they don't know their lesson.

We, as individuals, will the following:

Marvin Shenk leaves his motor scooter to Mrs. Durette.

Robert Modisett wills his troubles with Mrs. Lester to Bobby Jenkins.

Wanda Lamb leaves her ability to show off to anyone who wants it—say Sue Fox?

Jeanette Menefee leaves her blue jeans to anyone who can keep up with them better than she did.

Gayle Judd leaves her love letters from the cute Marine to Theda Fox.

Betty Griffith bequeaths her nickname of "Reds" to June Frazier. (It suits her better).

Jennie Ann Morgan leaves her chair in the Drug Store to Anna Lou Campbell, although an enlargement will have to be made.

Richard Keyser wills his troubles to Mrs. Shandelson, the manager of the Cafeteria.

Duane Hylton leaves his ability to get along with Mr. Phillips to anyone who can't get along with him.

Albert Bauserman, alias "Fuzzy", wills his giggle and ignorance to Roger Miller. We hope Roger will profit from Albert's Motto: "It Pays to BE Ignorant."

Alice Humphreys leaves her place in the Glee Club to Martha Ann Williams. (Remember now, Martha, practice hard.)

Mary Lou Cullers sorrowfully wills her desk to Wanda McClure to write on—she usually does anyway.

Betty Huffman leaves her best wishes to Elinor Estep hoping she can catch a man of her own in the future.

Benny Fox leaves his nickname of "Heartbreaker" to Tommy Osborne. Tommy, it looks as if you're already following in his footsteps.

Peggy Broyles leaves the cherished memories of Benny Fox to Mary Elizabeth Aleshire, Janice Ramey, and Lula Miller.

Nancy Herndon leaves her ability to get a "Soda Jerk" to Jane Montgomery. She needs it.

Jimmy Hudson leaves his "Horse Laugh" to Wayne Good. May he carry it on through the following years.

Rudy Smith wills his ability to "get away with murder" in the library to Robert Long.

Oneida Dodson leaves her silly giggles to Audrey Somers.

Ashby Herndon leaves his picture to Joyce Lamb to look at in future years.

Joyce Gochenour leaves her height to Barbara Funk in hopes it will help her become an A-1 basketball player.

Earl Frazier leaves his height to Jerry Hoak so he won't have to put his trombone music on the floor to read it.

Peggy Griffith wills a comb and a tube of lipstick to Nancy Lou Winkler.

Janet Koontz leaves her title as "The Biggest Flirt" to Sarah Bell Robinson since it fits her better.

Frances Darnell leaves her ability to concentrate in Typing Class to Martha Judd.

Lloyd Wakeman leaves his ability to run the projector to Tommy Jennings. Tommy, you'll have to learn first how to keep the projector from running to waste time.

Carroll Painter wills his ability to speak "Pig Latin" to Drexel Judd and Roger Miller. (And Mrs. Walton too, if she can use it.)

Given under our hands and seal this, the first day of June, one thousand-nine-hundred and forty-nine.

CLASS OF '49

Remember?

September 6, 1945, we, one hundred two bewildered Freshmen, rose to the "Third Floor" of Luray High. What a thrill!

The Freshman picnic at Shuler's and how we came tiptoeing in at the late hour of 9:00 p. m. Lucky were those who had a boy friend.

The time we took Algebra and the teacher talked about flying airplanes. "X" sure stood for a lot of things.

The Valentine party held in the gym, and the things that went into that punch.

That day in '46 when there was so much excitement and girls' hearts a'flutterin' for just one tiny glimpse of our brand new music director. He became so well liked that at our first Christmas Concert he got so many presents he was surprised at not getting a present from each student.

The year our six-man football team rose to glory and fame for being undefeated during the season.

The way we skipped along Main Street in a mile long snake dance and the roaring bon-fire held afterwards just off the foot-ball diamond. This really gave the team the pep they needed.

The thrill of our first prom—the dimly lighted gym and soft lilting music drifting to the couples as they glided over the polished floor. How many of you remember the rides to Big Meadows with the last dreamy strains of "Goodnight Sweetheart" still ringing in your ears?

The Beta Club initiation and how we thought our sack dresses were going to split any minute as we had to bow to the Senior Club members when we met them in the halls. How cute the boys looked in their skirts!

The trip the History Class took to Washington and how fast we went from place to place. How about the pictures we took, especially the ones of those bus drivers, Frankie and Herbie? Oh, the memories of that day, huh girls?

The trip to Harrisburg, and all the people that didn't sleep? How about that Johnny????

The Glee Club's trip to Fredericksburg on that wonderful bus.

The campaigning rally for S. C. A. officers and the sign written on the back of one boy's head that had recently been shaved. Must have been a Democrat!!

Our first practice fire-drill with the new bells. What a tragedy if we had had a real fire. Miss Bohannon's room was last to leave the building!!!!

The exciting Intra-mural basketball and all the ties the Seniors had with the Sophomores. Such "Feudin' and Fussin'."

The day some of the Senior boys skipped school and Mr. Phillips, the principal, caught them in the pool-room. Such a way for Seniors to act!

The trip to Shenandoah National Park Headquarters to celebrate the birthday of the Department of Interior.

How eager every one was to work on the Annual just to get out of classes and especially the day all the Seniors left school to scout up ads. Oh, MY aching feet!!

That romantic spot better known as "Yager's Woods!" Plenty of parking space!!!!

Hollywood descended upon us May 6. My what a production! We've never seen a Senior play like it—may never again!

May 13, 1949, a "Red Letter Day" — our last Prom. How glad and how sad we were!! The Sophomores really entertained us with a "Bang."

The night we wiped the last tear from our eyes to see that we were no longer school-kids. Commencement night will always be remembered.

Senior Play

May the sixth was just one more of the happy memories of our high school days. Will you ever forget "Mother Does the Talking" with Nancy Herndon as Janet Maxwell, the mother; Benny Fox as John, her husband; Carroll Painter as Wilbur, their young son; Nell Sedwick as Betty Lou, the younger daughter; Wanda Lamb as Connie, the eldest child; Barbara Keyser as Aunt Mary, Mrs. Maxwell's relative; Charles Munday as Hercules Nelson, Wilbur's bosom pal; Peggy Broyles as Bernadine Smith, Betty Lou's loyal friend; Mary Lou Cullers as Alice Brown, Mrs. Maxwell's sister; Page Painter as William Brown, Alice's husband; Lloyd Wakeman as Henry Maxwell, John Maxwell's brother; Sue Ruffner as Martha Maxwell, Henry's wife; Rudolph Smith as Mr. Hinckley, a business man; Jimmy Hudson as Charlie Craig, Connie's boy friend. How about the music between acts?

Our Day of Days, June First

We finally received our diplomas and passed through the "Door of Opportunity," after being reminded of some of our school's objectives. Nell Sedwick, our Salutatorian, represented "The School"; Nancy Herndon and Page Painter represented "The Class of '49"; Irma Kemp, our Valedictorian, represented "Education". The objectives were presented as follows:

Health .....	Richard Stilwell
Home .....	Peggy Griffith
Learning .....	Wanda Lamb
Citizenship .....	Luther Miller
Leisure .....	Barbara Keyser
Character .....	Jane Short
Vocation .....	Rudolph Smith
